

INTRODUCTION

Meet our exclusive personal trainer and wellness expert Ivan Toscano.

About Ivan:

Since he was a little boy, Ivan has been involved in sports and martial arts in Italy, his home country.

Then, fitness became his job, taking him to Australia and the UK, where he studied and developed a training method that can be adapted to everyone and can take you to another level of fitness, guiding you through small steps to create a better version of yourself.

Ivan is our exclusive personal trainer that will help you keep in shape during your stay.

He will analyse your lifestyle, diet and exercise in our state-of-the-art gym, on the rooftop or from the comfort of your suite.

He can offer you a tailor-made personal training session, a jog in Palma's city centre or a diet plan, and help you make small lifestyle changes day by day.
